Farewell to a Champion
On that night in '69 with seconds left to play
He caught the tip from Robert L.
and put the game away
The championship was ours after years of toil and sweat
Billy Pettaway was the hero as his team cut down the net
Now on heaven's shore perhaps Robert and Billy talk About the game that winter's nights on streets of gold they walk
Who are we to judge for the living or the dead?
A champion has passed on from us that's all that should be said
