Packer Jr, Brenda, Marva, Debbie, Wanda and Gary, today is a sad day and a happy day. Sad because of the loss of Ms. Georgia Mae but a happy day because she has reached her final destination in life and is now united with our Lord and Savior. We know the pain, we know the sorrow, but the happy memories will carry you through this sorrowful time. Our memories of growing up next door will never be forgotten. Our condolences to each of you and your families. God be with you, Joyce and Cynthia Harris

I'm out of the State on business; however, I wish that I could be with my family during this time of our sorrow. Since, I can't I'm sending this written condolence to convey my heartfelt sympathy to each of you... I care and share in the loss of one so dear to you and to me. May my loving thoughts and fervent prayers bring comfort to each of you? There is a blessed assurance that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. I love each of you dearly. Your Cousin,

Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.
