I remember Mr. Buddy Boy from when I was a child growing up in NC on the farm. He worked with my late daddy, Earl Creech and my late brother, Kenneth. My entire family loved and respected him, and I express sorrow to his entire family for your loss.

It is sad to see Buddy Boy has passed. He was always a good friend and neighbor to me and my family. I always referred to him as my "Black daddy" and always will. He taught me a lot. I had my first hog killing from start to finish with him and we did things the old way. I have too many great memories of things we did together to comment on. My family will never forget him. Gonna miss that old man. Woody.
