To the family of Dwain King from Ulysses Harris of Raleigh, NC. I am very sorry to hear of your loss. Dwain and I were classmates at Southern Wayne H.S. I had the pleasure of seeing Dwain at the funeral of J.D. Evans. Deo is also my cousin. May your families find strength in God in the days ahead. I know he will be sorely missed.

To: The King Family From: The Williams-Hobbs Family Date: February 26, 2016 Re: We share your pain! On the behalf of entire Williams-Hobbs Family we would like to offer you our warmest and most heart felt condolence. Roger Dwain will truly be missed. We deeply regret that we all can't be there with you to help you through such a trying time. Just know that as many of us that can be there will. The ones who can't make will surely have you on their minds, in their hearts, and most definitely in their prayers. We are only a phone call away. If you need anything, even if it's just to talk, please pick up the phone and call us. We all love you and are thinking of you and your immediate family. Take care and be strong. Remember, it's only God's will. James Yelverton and the entire Williams-Hobbs Family
