Well, the last time I saw Deb was after Mrs. Wood's funeral. Yes, Pat, Cynt, Deb and I had lunch together, and it was good. It wasn't that long ago either. Since then I've had to walk this way with JoJo, Mike Faison, and now Deb. It's really getting to be too much. I'm sorry ya'll, that I haven't been by. My heart is right there with you all. It's just almost too much. I am so sorry. I keep thinking about when we were small. We played together, swam together, and got in trouble together. In all, we've had a pretty good life. Some right, some wrong. To top it all off, we have Christ. For those who don't, He's there for the asking. Just ask and believe. One thing is for sure, We will not see our loved ones who went to heaven without having Christ in our lives. Just don't keep putting Him off, because the very time you make up your mind to have a relationship with the Lord, something will happen to you and you will be plucked away and it will be too late. Just don't let your life be for nothing. Take a stand and make the right decision. Love you guys!! Jo Anne
