My heart is heavy with the passing of my Cousin Sadie. Every since I have had memory, this woman had cared for me and showed me love. She would say "come over here and give me some sugar!" Or she would say, "Let me fix you some collard greens!" She always gave me love and that amazing comfortable feeling that all was right with the world during our visit! I will be praying for everyone that is morning this beautiful lady and just as a reminder that being absent from the body means she is present with the Lord. Please tell my great grandma Marget and grandma Edith I said hello! R.I.H. Cousin Sadie!
