What a Blessing it was to sing along side her in the Eleanor Harris Chorale! That was a joy of hers and a way giving glory and honor to our Lord and our God! May the grace of the Almighty give you peace and continue to keep you in His care!

I can remember her singing in the choir at First African Baptist Church. She really enjoyed singing. You could tell that was her own personal way of praising our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. My grandmother, Emma K. Langston made sure that I knew my family and who was related to me. It's been years since I've seen her. But that's the good thing about memories. They (memories) will last through time. To the family, we sincerely send our condolences to you. We hope and pray that God will strengthen you where you are weak and make you stronger. From your cousins, Anjanette Langston Reed, Mable S. Langston, Rosa L. Freeman, and the entire family of the late Zeb Sr. and Emma K. Langston.
