When I moved next door to Ms. Annie, she came walking out of her house towards me with a big white box. She introduced herself and gave me the nicest housewarming gift. Immediately, I knew that we would be good for each other; and we were. I will miss you Ms. Annie. RIP...Jean Fuller

Aunt Annie Doris As the last sibling of the Lafayette and Sallie Armwood Reid dynasty, thank you for all that you have meant in my life and in the lives of our family. From the time when you were married to Uncle Al in grandma and grandpa's living room on Olivia Lane, I have loved you. I have thoroughly enjoyed our conversations, both with you and Uncle Al, over the many years. I appreciate how you kept it real and never pulled any punches and most of all how you expressed your love for me and for the Reid family. You knew where everyone was and what they were doing because we all kept in touch with you. I will be eternally grateful how from a small boy you always encouraged me even during my most challenging times as an adolescent and as an adult. I learned so much from you, my mother and all my aunts about how to be resilient, strength of character, a strong constitution and unending faith in God. Deepest and heartfelt sympathies to Paula, Tony, Sheila and Kay. Be comforted knowing that Aunt Annie Doris is in heaven with God and with the other members of the Reid family. Love, Amie (Bill), Vanessa and Howell Family
