It has taken me the longest time since my family found out about your departure to write. Not because I did not know what to say, but just because I am still in denial about you leaving. You driving up blasting your gospel music in the car, our talks in the parking lot and on my patio porch, and you talking about Sunday service after you had come home from church use to make me smile because I could see the glow on your face. How you loved and missed your mom and those trips that you and your girl friends use to take. Thanks for coming back to see me before I left that community, it meant the world to me that you thought of me and my family even after you had already moved. I will never forget you, LJ, my family and the Rembert's being neighbors. You were loved and are deeply missed. My sincere prayers have been and are with LJ, your family and friends. Gone but never forgotten. Ms. Doby

Mrs. Tiffany Rembert lit a candle in honor of Tamika.

She was a great friend. She was smart. I met her in Georgia as a neighbor saling Avon. She always was pleasant polite and Quiet. Getting to know her was great. I learned from her and we helped each other at times. I know she will be missed. Very surprising death I was not looking for. To her son. Asking God to protect him and guide him thru greatness of his life. Ms. Tamika you rest on. I love and miss you. Great moments we had.
