A beautiful soul sister has taken life's journey. I have known her since I was at least 10 yrs old. Always a smile our families were close. I can remember the girls when they toddlers and her son as a boy. Very dedicated to her parents and to her siblings. She taught the babies how to show love and respect. I know she shall receive a crown of faithfulness! Thank you Lord Jesus for Mary Ann' life and for sharing it with all of us. Eternal Love, Wanda B. Reid

The Moses Family send their sincerest condolences and sympathy to Mary Ann's entire family. She was a long-time neighbor and friend to us. She lit up every place that was graced with her presence, her smile and company. Now she's with the Lord, but she pressed on to the mark and was a very strong survivor and trooper to this life so now may she rest in heavenly peace. I pray that the God of All Comfort, Peace and Strength embrace each and every one of you. Fondly, Shelvy Moses
