Louise we so far back in time. We started out living in the same community, clubing together and we carried on serving the Lord together. I will miss "Hey Sugga" that you would always say when I called. You will truly be missed. I have the memories in my heart.

Ms. Annie & Judith Hill lit a candle in honor of Frances.

Mommy, your neighbor (Ms. Annie "Sweet" Hill) & myself (Judith Hill) will always keep you in our hearts. You were a great neighbor & friend. I loved to tease you, because your laughter made us both laugh. You were always happy & had something nice to say whenever we saw you. We will always remember just how sweet & beautiful you were. R.I.P. & R.I.H., lovely lady, you were one of a kind & we loved you.

Ms. Weezy was a kind loving lady. I remember going to her house, I'd sit and talk with her and she always made me feel welcomed. In this day and age it's hard to find genuine caring people but I definitely found it in her. She was truly a gem.
