Priscilla will always be my sister in law. She was one of the kindest, selfless and loving persons I know. Her humble and meek spirit are two qualities she displayed everyone I saw her. I could always count on seeing her smile and making her laugh. To know her is to live her because she was an authentically lovable person.

Mrs Priscilla was a very quiet and caring person that loved and took care of her family. I met her thru one of her daughters and have known her for the past 20yrs or more and found her to be a person that lived her family very much especially those grandkids. Rest in His arm♥ Praying for the family.

Cowania, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was a sweet and dear lady. I would often take her home from family dollar from time to time when she didn't want to wait on the bus. I pray that God will wrap his loving arm around your entire family and comfort you all during this most difficult time. C/O 1992

Sister, I thank God for giving me the opportunity to know you as a Sister n Love .. You was a woman of few words, but had big heart. Many times I saw you walking down the road, that let me know that you didn't need a ride as long as you had your two feet you was alright. It hurt to see you go, but happy to know I'll see you again and we'll walk around heaven all day! R.I.P. 😊😄❤️ Your Sister Pet
