Her life was a gift and she gave thanks for the good and bad that happened during her stay here. During her latter days my Aunt always left you with words of wisdom.....Love God/Love your family and b/c of your walk with the "LAWD" help others.....She loved her children and spoke with so much love and passion about each one of them.....She would say each day that the Lord wakes me up I am gonna thank him...he didn't have to do it but he did....This old body maybe "racked with pain" but I am trusting and believing in him...MY EYES/MY EARS/THESE OLD KNEES EVERYTHING ON ME IS 89....I AINT TRYING TO LEAVE HERE BUT WHEN MY EYES CLOSE ON THIS SIDE I WANT HIM TO SAY WELL DONE.....REST ON MY BELOVED AUNT.....THANK YOU FOR YOUR LOVE AND LESSONS IN LIFE.....muchlovduc

Over the past 2 and a half years of knowing Ms. Mildred, we had some good laughs and great conversations. I was her Nursing Assistant but regardless of our age difference we were more like friends. She listened and I talked and I listened and she talked. She always said I was a talking girl but a good old girl. She was such a woman of great strength and she fought a good fight but no more suffering now. It was a blessing to have met her and such an honor. Until we meet again, I'll see you later. ❤️
