I grew up going to Fellowship Baptist Church with Mr. Dickerson, he was one of the reasons I learned to sign. So many memories of his patience with me as a young teen learning how to communicate with him. I saw him last probably in 2017 and his smile still lit up the room. Will miss him, but I know he is rejoicing at the feet of his savior.

The joy of seeing & spending time with uncle Clee & aunt Mary 2wks ago at house will forever be the most wonderful memory to me besides when I was a little girl & we used to catch the train & go to town to Howell Bro's grocery 😊! God made sure that I had a chance to be at Grandma's house with him one more time together & love on each other with hugs & kisses before he came & got uncle Cle to be with Him in glory!! I will always treasure that Sunday morning!! I love you Uncle Cle, but God loved you best!!
