I am the oldest of the 5 children of Frank and Mary Susan Hicks. Louise used to come stay with us on Fridays so Mama could get out and run errands. I never saw her mad or aggravated. She was always smiling. As an adult I would run into her in Pikeville and I would hug her neck and she would tell anyone listening I was one of her Hicks babies. I loved her! Heaven has truly gained an angel.

Aunt LOUISE, I will always remember your warm hugs and kisses. Forever etched in my mind is our last visit when you and Momma Alice embraced each other with a long hug and kiss on the cheeks. You'll always have a special place in our hearts!
