My Dearest Aunt Addie, We love you more than words can say! You will be missed, most importantly you were loved beyond the skies and more. We hate to see you go, but we are glad to see that you are no longer in pain. God saw fit to bring you home to add more beauty to His Garden of Roses and hosts of Angels. Now you can rest assured in the arms of Jesus, Join the many loved ones that were awaiting you at the Gates with Open arms, All the Loved ones who had taken flight before you! I will never forget that Coconut Cake, and the love you put into it as you made it, the smile you gave that lit up the room, the laughter, hugs and conversation you always have given, when I got the news it broke my heart but I knew you could truly rest now and have no more worries upon your Heart, Now Rest In Peace my dear Aunt Addie, capture the hugs and kisses you have missed the most, I can see Harvey, Jimmie, Aunt Sister and many more gathered around you to welcome you in, May God give us the strength to do all that we have to do!! As the song says: " When peace like a river attenders my way, when sorrows of billows roll, Whatever my lot thou has taught me to say It is Well It is well with my soul." Rest In Peace until we meet again on that Great day. Love always Nikki, Francine, Patrick, Miracle and Josiah. Tell everyone I love that I miss them and will see them one sweet day and Kiss them all for us. Night Aunt Addie!

Loujeania Williams Baker lit a candle in honor of Addie.

I knew Addie when I was growing up as a child in Seven Springs. She was beautiful, witty, a sense of sass . Combine that with a caring heart and a dont mess with me spirit and you had our Addie. I have not seen her since my father passed many years ago bit the memories of love and family linger on. Take your rest sweet lady, join your loved ones and say hello to Mrs Rosie and Mr. Jessie. Give a hug to Bolden and Millie Williams up there too.
