Micheal, my classmate and his younger brother Ben along with myself and other teenagers would gather under the carport at the Mckenzie residence during the summer as one of our hangouts. Mrs McKenzie was always welcoming and enjoying us having fun at her doorstep. She always treated us very nicely recognizing the friendship we had with her sons. In remembrance of another good parent we all had growing up.

I had the honor and pleasure of meeting and spending time with Mrs. McKinzie on my visits to Goldsboro with her son, my brother Ben. I will always remember her as a sweet, kind lady with an endearing personality and youthful spirit. May she now rest in eternal peace in heaven with our lord and savior and may the family find strength in faith and prayer.
