Aunt Ree was the best!!!! When I Hadie and I were both working and my mom got unable to look after Samantha I was so upset. I knew we could not afford a daycare and I didn't know anyone that would babysit. She was about 18months old then. Aunt Ree came to the rescue Hadie took me to meet her and she was so gracious. When I asked how much she would charge she said $5 per week. Can you believe that? I offered more but she would not hear of it. Sometimes I had to be at work at 5am, aunt ree got up and took Samantha at 4:30 in the morning and sometimes I didn't get off until 8 or 9 at night aunt ree still took care of her. She potty trained Samantha and taught me a lot about looking after kids that I needed to know. She ironed everything, jogging suits and all. She kept Samantha until she was about 3. A few years later I went and got her and we visited my father-in-law, Mr June, at a rest home in Smithfield. He was her brother. She was a strong and great lady, and I know she will be greatly missed. Everytime I saw her she spoke and usually we hugged, piggly wiggly most of the time, occasionally at carlie cs. I am praying for all of you. love you all. Terry Bass Atkinson

Gonna miss my Auntie...I know that she knew that I loved her, even though I didn't visit everyday. I loved her charisma, she didn't back down from anyone, though she was small in stature; she was also the sweetest person in the the world...I thank God for saving her, and gifting us with her this long. My condolences to the family.
