Hi from the Allen Gaston Wilson Parker and a Codett family. My aunt Dolores for some of us who call her Aunt Dee for me I will always love and respect her for her courage. I love her because she was always about high standards regardless where we come from or situation but where we want to be at in life. Aunt Delores Aunt India and my mother ruled with strict rules. For their children will do better or greater than them. I admire my aunt Delores and always will think of her with great admiration and love. The lesson I have learned through her passing you don't show the world that you are beaten you show them that you won. Aunt Dolores you are a winner. Kukutana Tena.(Swahili) to we meet again

We always called her Miss Delores. The Phrase that says it takes an Entire Village to raise a child. Ms. Delores, was part of the Village in Newburgh, New York. I remember so many days we saw Ms. Delores, in her nurses uniform going to work. How beautiful and proud she always was. I will miss you Ms. Delores.
