To the Tatum Family, I send my prayers and sympathy. The Hollingsworth's lived next door to us when I was growing up in Little Washington. I didn't know Ms. Ann well because she and her siblings were grown and leaving home. I would see them as they would come home to visit Mr. Lewis and Ms. Mattie. When I graduated and would come home for the Dillard Alumni celebrations, I would always see Ms. Ann and "the Hollingsworths", as I called them. I looked forward to each opportunity to speak and remind her who I was. She was such a sweet person.

As a child who grew up on the same block as Miss Ann and her family. I seldom saw her without a smile or a kind word. She was a pillar of the block of Wanamaker St. She was one of those neighbor/Mom's who made me feel secure just by being there. Rest well Miss Ann, you are a part of my history and I will never forget you...

To the Tatum family, as you know it was a joy taking care of Miss Ann as we so sweetly called each other. I thank God for the opportunity for the long talks when we would ride out to the stores and other places. As you know she had her own way of doing things. God Bless you family, she was a loving and caring friends. Thank you for the opportunity to be a friend and a helper to her. I pray that she is sleeping in the arms of our Father in Heaven..

The Thomas family met Eloise Tatum 55 years ago when they moved directly across the street from the Tatums on Wanamaker Street, Philadelphia, PA. She was the nicest and most loveable neighbor you ever wanted to meet. The Tatums immediately became our extended family. When she moved to North Carolina she was surely missed. She will forever be remembered in our family. Love, Harriet, James, Howard, David, and Michele.
