Our summers will not be the same. Ernest and Danita was always visiting us at our home and we would do the same at their home. What wonderful memories we hold of all the good and sad times together. Ernest has been our friend for at least over 50 years. He loved people and had a heart of gold. If you were in need Ernest would be right there to lend a hand. We thank God that he has lend Ernest to us for all these years and we were lifetime friends. Rest on my friend, you are so missed.

Brother Biggs was a great person to be around. He was a member of our Christian Men Fellowship group. He was always willing, and he supported whatever event we had going on at the church. I'm reminded of our last fishing trip that the men sponsored, we didn't catch much but he reminded us it was good to fellowship. He will be missed by our men group. Sister Danita, just be encouraged, God is able to help you and us through this hour of Bereavement. We love you! Pastor Tony & Debbie and the St. James Church Family Fremont N.C..
