I love Ma King. The Lord sent for His jewel. She was a jewel indeed and taught me a few thing about love and the Lord. You couldn't be in her presence and not feel the love. She was an example of love for the Lord and love for people and she is the grandmother to my daughter.

Im so sorry to hear of your passing. I was really hoping to stop by to visit you the last time I was home. It saddens me to know I won't be able to see your smiling face one last time. You were one of my favorite people doing my youth years at Burning Bush Holy Church. I dont know what you saw in me but everytime we crossed paths you would say "It's something about you", that's my girl. You never let service end without coming to speak to me. Thank you for all the love, smiles, peppermint and words of encouragement. I love you and I'm going to miss you. Until me meet again, rest easy Ma King.
