Well what can I say. Mr. Frank had become someone that I looked up to as my buddy. He will forever miss him coming to the VA and smiling at me and we talking to each other like he was my daddy. I will forever miss the birthday ballons and seeing him walk for the last time. He will forever be in my heart. RIP Mr. Frank. You will be missed.

You were my friend, my confidant, my supporter, my Photographer, and my Brother. You took care of my mother until she went home. When she went into the hospital every time you stayed there. When she was in the nursing home for 3 months, you stayed right there. You fed her, you bathed her, you watched TV with her, and you Loved on her. If people could know half the story. You were a servant of servants. I salute you my brother, a fierce Black Belt, training police officers along with the teacher, Michael Britt. You were a caregiver, you stayed true to your calling. You were a Fireman, rescuing people from burning houses. A farmer, raising hogs and selling them along with your wife Nellie and the children. After all of that became an anointed musician, learning to perfect the keyboard and Saxophone, while becoming a student of the scripture. You loved nature and wildlife. The snake killer in the neighborhood and still remain the kindest of us all. God saw it all. You have finished your course. And the half has not been told. To be absent from the body, you are now present with the LORD!!!

I was sadden to hear of Frank passing. He and I first met at Dillard High School in 1969. We were both walking the hallway. We joked about not being in class and later became friends. I introduced him to Karate and we both trained together for years. He will be missed....

I am beyond saddened at my friend Frank's passing. We were childhood friends who grew up together right on through high school. Frank always had a smile on his face. I was glad to see him when I moved back to Goldsboro some years back after having lived abroad for decades. He is an integral part of the pleasant memories of my growing up in our neighborhood. My sincerest condolences to you, his family and friends. Indeed, the world is an emptier place without him. Dr. Larry D. Monk Sr. -
