Heavenly Father, This is another "Letter" this time from Johnnie Mae (Inside story) thank you for allowing me to share so many happy years with my most dearest Sister/Pal /Buddy and Friend. My heart hurts so deeply because this is truly the first time in all 75 years that I have had to acknowledge that my Buddy, who is just one of my most beautiful siblings; has laid down her burdens and there is no "Way" I can come to stand my her side to help her recover... However, our Holy Father, I along with my siblings, family and friends; do release her to you Oh! King! Now, she is resting, now she is safe in the most powerful arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. Please comfort her children and my brother in-law as they too have separated from more than just a beautiful mother/grandmother/ wife, But a loving friend. Marion, stand strong I believe, she will always be in your heart with memories of special love. Father God, thank you Jesus! for blessing me with such a beautiful family, My much gratitude to all. Barbara, as you are laid to your final rest my lifetime sister/friend - Thank you for always loving and trusting in me throughout our Childhood/Adulthood and as your Bishop, of Jesus Way of Love Churches Inc. of Vista, California "We salute your" Lovingly Bishop Johnnie M.
