I will never forget the first time I met Betty Lou and her mom. My brother, George (Monk) asked if we felt like having company for a weekend, and of course, the answer was, Yes. Bett, and her mom were a joy to be around. I will never forget her coming into my home for the first time, and before I knew it she was in the kitchen doing one of her favorite things, cooking. For a moment it felt as if I was the guest with the best hostess ever. I will certainly miss my weekly conversations with my her. I never thought that the conversation I had with her three weeks ago would be the last time I would hear her say, "I love you too, sugg. To her children, please know that you are in my prayers, and you will forever be my niece and nephews. Elaine Rouse Johnson
