My name is Georgie and I knew Leonard back in our younger years. Leonard was a good guy and we had best times together. He bought me a picture and I still have that picture to this day. I have always thought of Leonard over the past years.

I'm so very sorry to hear of Leonard's passing. My sincere condolences to his family. My husband worked with Leonard and always marveled at his craftsmanship and skills. He trusted and knew that Leonard did things right. Danny Brown (my late husband) would always joke around with Leonard, and tease him about the comb he always kept in his pocket! I hope that they are both at peace now, and can have a beer and chat about their time here on earth, and look out for those of us that remain behind. ♥

Funny, as I drove down Herman Street this week, I passed by his home, & wondered how he was doing. I'm sorry to hear of his passing, but I know he left his smile on our hearts, & he was always such a positive fellow. God rest your soul, Leonard.

My brother had such a great sense of humor, we were so in tune with each other when it came time to joke around and match wits with each other and find the funny in whatever topic or situations that came along it was unreal, outside of the problems he had (as we all have) he was an excellent carpenter and skilled at whatever he set his mind too, didn't matter if he had never tried it before, still always found a way to master it, I didn't spend as much time with him as I could have and man does it hurt now that he's gone, wish I had taken advantage of the time better, if you find yourself in a situation like mine is now get close, stay close and use that Precious time wisely, life has no rewind and the hurt that comes along after the fact is not easy to deal with, I'm going to miss you so much! , I Love You Leonard!!
