It is with our deepest condolences and prayers to the McNair family. Rev. McNair has been a good family friend to us for many years. Some of my fondest memories was during the passing of my brother Thomas 17 years ago. He did the prayer of comfort during his funeral. Our family talks about that powerful prayer he prayed on that day on many occasions. It was awesome. We wanted him to do the same for our mother 3 years ago but he had a schedule engagement out of town. But he still supported us whole-heartedly. He could preach, sing, and pray. A mighty man of God. I also remember when my daughter Briona Battle was running for Miss AKA Debutante in 2011. He attended some of our fundraisers like the car wash to get his truck clean. He always supported us strongly. His wife Mrs. Veda was Briona's school principal all through her elementary school years at Eastern Wayne Elementary. Briona loved Mrs. Veda McNair. RIP Rev.McNair

My sincere condolences is extended to the McNair family and church community. As youngsters we grew-up in North-end section of Goldsboro, Attended and rode the same bus to and from our school. Rev. McNair was then a man of integrity, he could be trusted to tell the truth no matter. Although a few of our classmates did not accept him, because he lived and exemplified "holiness", he still stood on his faith and Christian teachings. Years and miles separated us; however, when I visited Goldsboro I was often reminded that Rev. McNair was still "preaching". Praise the Lord! Good memories and a great legacy he has left his family and friends. We all can be proud and thankful that the Lord allowed Howard, as we referenced him, to be on our life's path. Family know that God and friends will not leave you, but are there to comfort and support you in the demise of your love, dear Howard, (Rev. Howard McNair). God's grace and mercy is yours.

My name is Shirley Smith, pastor has always made me feel welcome to New Stoney hill Church. I had no church home when I came to Goldsboro. I didn't know too many people. Pastor always treated me with love and care. I left the church and would come back and he would say we love you Shirley and God loves you too no matter what. He never judged me. I love him and I know God is pleased with the work and the lives he has touched on this earth. Pastor your work is finished now its time for you to rest. Rest Pastor my heart is sad I'm gonna try hard pastor to make to heaven where you are ok.
