Jamal was a student of mine and a dear friend. He was kind, caring, and a light to all that knew him. He is and will be dearly missed. Isaiah 57: 1-2. I know Jamal is in a place of peace today, and that brings me comfort. May you all find peace and be inspired by your memories of him. Sincerely, Rebecca Whitman

Jamal was a beacon of light. I have never once heard a harsh word about you. My mother your Aunt Geraldine Dais loved you so much, she would tell me all the good things you did everyday. She was his babysitter for a while before he started school. You are loved by your family and friends. We will all miss you and keep you in our hearts. Praying for your dear mother, sister's and Uncle John & the rest of our family. Praying for strength for the Brinson/McKinney Family.
