I was saddened to hear of the home-going of "Butter". Life can be funny at times. Our life's pathways took us in different directions. But, she still remained in my heart. After years of separation. Our paths would cross again at the home-going of my mother. I was deeply touched that she still cared. Then our paths crossed again at the home-going of our niece and nephew. Talk about life. "Butter" and her family has gone thru a-lot of loss and our hearts went out to her and her family. Now, I have lost my "Butter" again. But, for her lost, her reward is paved with Streets of Gold. Everyday is Sunday. No more pain, No more let downs, No heartaches or grief. "Butter" go ahead and take your rest. We will meet again on that Great Getting-Up Morning. Very Well, Very Well.Your "Pokey" and his brother and sisters: Johnny L. Grant, Margie Murphy, T. Jean Wilkerson, Elaine Dunn.

When Butter was living in LaGrange or helping cousin Jethro we would love to just sit outside on the porch and talk or just remanence. This either took place on my grandmother Adell's porch or cousin Lillian Hart's porch for long periods of time, great talks. Oh, we shared a love of clothes and fashion too. I will miss you Butter, my cousin and my friend. Rest In Heaven Cousin

Butter was my neighbor. She was so sweet, loving, caring, and had a heart of gold. Always giving encouragement. My grandchildren loved Miss Butter. Everyday as they got home from school and daycare they had to check on her to see if she needed anything. She was an educator. Butter would help them with ABCs, reading, writing, and counting. Her doors were always open and she never met a stranger. To know her was to love her. We love you Butter and truly will miss you. Forever in our hearts. Angela, Myron, Miya, Karley, and Ethan Harris
