Diane has been a part of my family for at least 10 years. She and her bestie Annette seemed to be nearly inseparable. She fit right into the Finch family and was at all of our family get togethers. I will miss that big smile she always had and those collard greens she used to cook 🍲. She took really good care of our mother when we would bring her to church. She was a true friend and sister to everyone. We will miss you Diane but God knows what's best.

My prayers and condolences to the family. Diane, was a real rare one. You can't find them anywhere now. I'm just so thankful for having all 35 to 40yrs. Day one of getting to have her in my family life. As I was in her's. Even across the country, we always just a phone call away. You was that sister I didn't have. And I will have that in my heart sis. And missing those conversations about your Cowboys!! Win or lose.. I love you sis
