I was very privileged to have known Col. Beverly through years of working with him at the Wayne County Board of Elections. He was one of the kindest, most giving people I have had the pleasure of knowing. His dedication to his family, his country, and his kindness to everyone he met was greatly appreciated. He was a true Gentleman in every sense of the word and I feel very blessed to have known him. MaryLee Booth

My husband called the Colonel a "man's man" which was a high compliment coming from another man. He was fun, honest, knowledgeable, and accomplished. To me he was a woman's man: caring, loving, and protective. You will be remembered.
