It is with heartfelt sympathy that the McNair/Rowe family express our sincere condolences to the Barfield family. Ms Ruby and my mother Annie Mae McNair was the best of friends. Ms. Ruby will always be special in my heart. I thank God for that beautiful smile, and the way I would tease her about those thick eyebrows. May the God that we serve give the family the peace that passes all understanding, and may the precious memories of fun times with the family and the prayers of friends help to comfort the family through the days and years to come. We Love you... James & Ann Rowe (Ann McNair)

We all have a day to be called home. Thank God Miss Ruby's day did not come before she saw her 93rd birthday. She will be missed here, but God has her now and there is no better place to be than with our Lord and savior. Our sincere condolences to the family. From Gerri Sherard and Joyce (Ludy) Stanford
