Obituary

Zachary "Zack" Devon Stokes was born April 1, 1960 in Goldsboro, N.C. to the late Mary Frances Whitfield-Stokes and Ephesian Stokes. Zachary received his wings on December 20, 2021. He and his family would relocate to Washington, D.C. where he received his education within the District of Columbia school system. During his youth, he worked side by side with his father who taught him the trade of carpentry. He continued utilizing his trade working for many years with Davenport Insulation. He also used his trade after departing Davenport by helping family and friends with multiple projects. Furthermore, Zack was an amazing artist with talents beyond his time. He mastered and number of techniques which he later passed on to his niece and great nephew. Several years ago Zack moved back to North Carolina living the remaining of his life in Highpoint, N.C.

Zachary will be preceded in death by his parents; his niece, Leona "Angel" Stokes; four uncles, Carl Lee Whitfield, George "Buddy" Whitfield, John "Rabbit" Whitfield Jr., Freddie Ray Whitfield; one aunt, Dorothy "Dot" Whitfield; and our ancestors before us.

Zachary leaves to cherish his memories: two aunts, Linda "Joyce" Whitfield of Highpoint, NC and Polly Ann Whitfield of Laurel, MD; one uncle, Theolise Whitfield; one brother, Leonard Stokes (Gladys Lopez) of Orlando, FL; one sister, Ghislaine "Gigi" Stokes of Laurel, MD; three nieces, Jacqueline "Jackie" Zapata of Orlando, FL, Christina "Tina" Stokes of Washington, DC, and Daliyanna "Dali" Stokes of Orlando, FL; two nephews, Steve Terrell of Los Angeles, CA and Terrell Stokes of Washington, DC; four great-nephews, Terrell Stokes Jr, Ashton Terrell, Enrique Thompson, and Pierre Cook, Jr; five great nieces, Lynette Zapata-Gray, Lynise Zapata-Gray, Erica Wright, Lotus Beauty Morgan, and Radiance Thompson; and a host of family and friends.
