Pookie, my heart was sad when I heard you had left us, but after thinking about how you lived such a godly life, I felt better because I know you moved with God! Many people marveled over your strong sweet spirit and many have expressed so in their note of memories of your life. Now its time to reunite with Slim (Father) & Margaret (Mother). They taught you well while growing up on West Bergen Place, Red Bank, NJ. I know they're well pleased the way you lived your life! Stella, Brenda, & Margie Ann, I know your hearts are hurting but I ask you to be of good cheer. God doesn't make mistakes & He will guide you through this time of sorrow. Blessings Always, Long time family friend, Calvin J. & Regina Fenn

My deepest condolences to entire Williams/Johnson family. The loss of a loved one is a stabbing pain but we are comforted by the scriptures knowing they are truly at peace (Eccl 9:5the dead know nothing at all) and the hope that one day very soon death will be a thing of the past (Rev 21: 3&4). May those still here stay strong & comfort one another. Much Love, Dolores De Chalus

i have so many memories of Mother (as i affectionately call her) and she affectionately called me her daughter. She would always say that's my girl ❤️ my fondest memories will always be the Love she gave and her honest opinions about anything rather you asked her or not. the many shopping trips where the young (me) had to drive and the Elder(Mother & Linda) had to push the cart lol that was our thing. She was always there for me from the first day i met her ❤️ i am going to miss her poise and class, all the laughs and tears we shared. i Love you Mother and i will never forget you ❤️ 🙏
