My sweet laughing partner way go way back in high school. you and Marie Locklear use to have me sneaking with you all skipping class. We would have a good time laughing about crazy stuff that happened in school while hiding out. I will always remember you I am sure you have left a beautiful legacy of love for your family, grandchildren and friends. Rest on Jackie!

You were the realest, kindest, god fearing, family loving woman I know. You were a second mama to me and whether I was right or wrong you would tell me how it was. I will miss our talks, the messages just to keep me moving forward. You're now at peace and with our father. Rest easy lady, a whole lot of people will forever miss you ❤️

My heart is sadden because you left without me getting to talk to you for one last time. You will definitely be missed, especially our talks, hugs and laughs when we saw each other at Piggly Wiggly or Dollar General. We became very close going to school together and always kept in contact with each other. My classmate and dear friend. My condolences goes out to your children, grandbabies and mom. Praying for strength for the entire family and dear friends. Love you Jackie Lynn Seller's. Uou will always hold a special place in heart.
