Mrs Baldwin was a dedicated servant of God who loved Miller's Chapel and the AME Zion Church. More important than her love for the church was her love of people, without regard for their religious or socio-economic status. God bless her family as we remember this wonderful woman of God.

Mrs. Baldwin will surely surely be missed by the Mathis family. Mrs Baldwin and my mother(Mildred) who passed away were best best of friends; and back in the day Mrs Baldwin would come by on a Sunday to pick-up my mom and they were visiting somebody's church. The family has kept in touch with Mrs Baldwin for months, many many years because she was like a mother to the family. She love to drive her car, and say you my child too, always carried herself elegantly. Elson your mom will be missed by many who lives she impacted on this earth. Continue to keep GOD first. Mrs. Baldwin is with our Heavenly Father. *Sympathy From Irene Mathis Carter family/Florida.
