This picture is from the late sixties, like myself Larry grew up working on a farm . I enjoyed knowing and working with him, Larry is on the left and his father Sam Armwood is at the back.

Sorry to hear of Larry's passing. Fond memories of working with him and his parents family on our family farm in the Beautancus Community. He was a hard worker with a good sense of humor, if schools hadn't been segregated I would have probably known him better.

Just started AP Exhaust in February of this year and I meet Mr. Larry. Always a quite person but I would talk to him from time to time. My last conversation was Thursday before we left work about running the 25 ton machine. He will be missed at AP exhaust. Get your rest Mr. Larry we got it from here. Bending will never be the same. Not seeing u over there in your work section is going to be hard.

I have watched him drive up to the church door at D.L.C.M on Sundays and let his wife off then go park and in a few minutes you would see him coming around the conner down the side walk and in the church walking right fast That I will miss He is still my Deacon
