First of all, I want to express my deepest condolences to the Johnson family. As a past neighbor and friend of Mr. Johnsons sons. I want to thank Mr. Pat for the advice he gave me back in 1995, when I started working as a Correctional Officer. Mr. J told me that if I didn't remember anything else to always remember that if though the men are incarcerated, that if I show them a little respect as men, that I would earn their respect back. I carried those words until I retired in 2014. He was a wonderful neighbor and great mentor. RIP Mr. Johnson. Get your well-deserved Rest in Heaven. Jeff Rodgers
