I have been knowing Sis., all my life and never knew her name was Elizabeth, But I knew she was a Daniels by marrying Fry Daniels we call him. It really bothered me to hear of her passing. But Our Father make no mistakes and want put no more on us than we can bear. Sis, she was and always be to me, always had that beautiful smile, observant and quiet mostly. I remembered her from us living in West Haven, living on Oak St., to Shackelfree Church in which I know she was a faithful member to her church. Always there for them. I will be praying for the family for strength and Comforted that surpasses all understandings through CHRIST JESUS. Rest In Heaven Sis, you will be miss and always love.
