My friend, Margie, was beautiful like the Mona Lisa. She beamed with an innocence, inner beauty and thirst for the joy of every moment of life that made time spent in her presence more precious than rubies and diamonds. I treasured her whimsical ways of telling stories in such a comical enlightening manner that captivated all listeners to focus totally on every spoken word. She was one of the best of storytellers with a keen comic wit. I will greatly miss the fellowship with, Margie, my former neighbor and friend. I pray that God comfort, strengthen and support the Jones family in this time of transition. 🙏🙏🙏

Mrs. Jones also known as (Ma) to us will be missed. A sweet loving women. Ma was always so kind and loving to me. Me and her (Boo) Wilson where teenage crushes, and no what me and Wilson got into her love and kindness was always the same for me. I'm going to miss ringing you phone darling and hearing you sweet welcoming voice. Although you have departed this life I smile to know you and your baby (Boo) are back together. The love you shared will never be forgotten until we meet again I love you and it was most definitely a pleasure. Rest in paradise Momma Jones. 🥹👍
