My name is Debra Raynor-Wynn. I served as a caregiver to Mr. Lewis for almost 9 months, Mon-Fri until I took a different path in my nursing career. Though I stopped working as paid staff, I still remained in contact regularly. Mr. Lewis and I spent countless hours singing and harmonizing every chance we could. I will never forget our conversations about life in general. Though I never got to meet his family other than Corey, a devoted nephew, and his close friends in person, I would like offer my deepest sympathy to everyone!! I can say he lived his life the best that he could in the sight of GOD. He is Already truly missed. May GOD Bless you all: Family, Friends and the Devoted members of Goldsboro Chapel.
