First - let me say to the family that I am so sorry for your loss. I had the privilege of working with Athar at DCI many years ago. He was just beginning to hit his stride in sales for the company. I watched from the sidelines as he played a major role in closing one of the largest deals in company history. This was Athar at his best. I lost touch with him over the ensuing years but would hear from him occasionally and he always talked about the glory days in the past. I am sad to learn of his passing. To the family - he will be missed. All the best going forward - Matt Bomberger.
