Amantha was one of my favorite nurses as I went through cancer treatment. She never failed to make my day a little brighter. She always stopped to say Hello, when I wasn't her patient. She was always so upbeat and friendly, with the gentlest touch when doing a treatment. I've missed her at oncology, but it is so sad to know she will never be back. I bet we will all feel her loving spirit in oncology, watching over us!

Amantha was an amazing coworker, nurse, she was a big part of our family her at Oncology. God had blessed her with a gentle touch to everyone she came in contact with. Everyone that had known loved her! You could not help it she had the most beautiful spirit! I am so Blessed to have known her. I will forever miss her! I know she is in Heaven laughing and having the time of her life. She is watching over her children and grandchildren. My deepest prays to them!Debbie
