Ms. Pearle Mae (MS. BROOKLYNITE) - GATES AVENUE!!!! I will always remember you for all of your spunkiness, conversations of your life's memories, playing the song He's and On Time God and you speaking of your Grand-mother oh! and let's not forget you hollering NURSE! (knowing I wasn't a nurse). You were placed in my life's path for a reason! And for that reason, I am becoming what I believe God has placed before me. Thank you, for being you and allowing me to spend time in your world. I will ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU!! Love always Erika B.

Even though I've known Pearl's son for some years I meet Pearl at the nursing home, and even though I told her my name every time I went into her room, she called me Helen, and was always trying to give me a piece of paper with numbers on them and she would say now Helen make sure you play them numbers. I enjoyed listening to her tell us about herself. Pearl will be missed! Lynn you and your family is in my prayers and Lynn if you need anything please call anytime day or night. We love you! love,Linda Allen
