Mr Washington was my boss many years ago at the N&O. I enjoyed visiting him and his wife Mary at their home a few years back and seeing her collection of dolls. I'm so sorry I was recovering from surgery and missed his home going service. Condolences to his wife and family.

Mr Washington was a God sent. I remember him from our church in Raleigh. St Paul AME Him and Mrs Washington was my mother's pew partners. Every Sunday we had to get to church on time so they could sit together. He would call me about me being Class Leader President and what he wanted to discuss at our meeting. Take your rest Mr Washington for I will always Love you but I know God luv you best. Good night
