My deepest sympathy to the family of Ethelene. Ethelene and I started first grade together at East End Elementary School. One memory that stands out is when we were in sixth grade, she had to teach many of the girls how to wear stocking with the garter belt and the seam running up the back. She was wise beyond her years. We (the girls) had a lot of fun, however, she was frustrated but didn't give up until all of us got it right. I thank God for putting me in the right place in May. She and her sisters were facetimeing and the called me over so I could talk with and see her. Thank you Bryant Ladies. I will continue to keep you all in my prayers. With much love, Mary Thomas McEachern

The Bryant family was like family to me. Their parents and my mom, Lera Hatch and their aunt Nellie were close friends. I remember them as great seamstress and very humble people. May you rest in peace Evangelist Vera.
