From the first time i met you, you were kind. You were my mom away from home. You treated me like the daughter you never had. I enjoyed making you smile. We had great times together and i will hold them in my heart. I remember the last time i seen you. The smile on your face was priceless. You asked me why didn't I call you i said i wanted to surprise you. You told me that i had. The last time i spoke to you our phones were acting up. However we got out i love you in. We got our jokes and laughs in. I will treasure you and your friendship Ms Dot aka Mom D. You will be missed by me and my grands. I loved you but God loved you best. Take your rest.Cynthia Williams
