I had the sincere pleasure and honor to have known Mike for nearly 20 years, working with him in the Adult High School at WCC. He never failed to greet me with an infectious grin and a kind word or a joke. He was a wonderful teacher, spending so much time with his students, dedicated to helping them succeed. I know that he touched so many lives, all for the better. He was a good man and a generous soul, a true gentleman. He will be greatly missed. My prayers are with his loving family that God will send you comfort and healing.

I have had the pleasure of knowing Michael since I started working at Wayne Community College in 2006. Over the years we became good friends and fellow Duke Basketball fans. Even though we had both moved on from WCC we stayed in touch, usually through text messages. I will miss him very much and my prayers go out to his family. Tim Rose
