For at least the past 30 years, Aunt Bessie and I had nicknames for each other. I called her my Bessu and she called me her TashieBoshie (We never spelled it, but that's how I imagined it would be from the sound 😊). She had a sweet spirit just like her mom, whom some of us grandkids called Sweet Pea. My heart hurts because I will never see her smile again, hug her, or hear her say, "you're my TashieBoshie". But my heart is at peace because she is no longer in pain and with her mother again. I'm thankful I had the opportunity to say goodbye and tell her once again that I love her and that she was My Bessu. ❤️

To: Amanda Artis & Family, Amanda, we remember Mrs. Bessie as a great friend to our father, Tom Stewart during their time at Willow Creek. Mrs. Bessie and my father shared many laughs and special moments, especially playing the Bingo Games. They were known as the dynamic duo. We will never forget the day that Mrs. Bessie reached out to purchase a headstone for her husband. Her joy upon learning of our family business was truly touching. Mrs. Bessie's kindness and generosity touched us all. Though she is no longer with us, her memory will live forever! Rest in peace, Mrs. Bessie. You will be truly missed! Leroy & LaTarsha Bunn

My daughter and I met Ms. Bessie at Britthaven many years ago while visiting friends who also lived there. Back in the day I tried to help her pick out outfits to wear to our church ministry there. To those who knew her...she had a lot of outfits in that tiny closet and purses as well. We also spent time with her at Bingo...back in the good ole days when players actually won 25 cents per game won! We felt like she was part of our family. Bessie always had a smile on her face and positive words...even over the past few months when her health was failing. She spoke so lovingly of all her family over the years. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. -Andrea Bone

To The Harvey and Artis Family, We were so sorry to hear of the passing of Bessie. We can not remember a time when Bessie was not a part of our life, we all grew up together, attended church together, shared in each others sorrows and joys. We were family. Bessie's Mother and our Mother were best friends as well as her and Bessie. Bessie will surely be missed. If there is anything we can do for you all, don't hesitate to call, we are here for you.
