Gail will be so, so missed. She has, in addition to fiercely fighting to stay here, been taking care of her brother a Veteran. She has been an amazing caregiver and sister and always so optimistic. She was a wonderful example of a Christ follower and set the bar high for us, who are left to carry on here. Rest now in our Savior's arms my friend.

This is hard a hard one. Aunt Gail, you were one of the bravest, strongest people I've known... Nothing scared you. You were so full of love, life, compassion and so helpful to others. You always made me laugh. I will miss that so much. Daisy and I will miss you. I'll keep her dressed up just for you. I love you forever and thank you for all you've done for me. "HG" you made it...from labor to reward. All my heart. Love, Tara and Daisy ❤️

To Jennifer and Family, If is with the most heartfelt sympathy that I express my condolences on the loss of Gail. Losing a sister is one of the most challenging trials that is forever life changing. I not only sympathize but empathize with your loss. We never know why God brings us to this place; but, we have to believe in His plan....because it is with the Grace of God that we are not consumed. I am assured that Gail is happy and at peace as she was a beautiful person and lived a full life. She will always be your Guardian Angel! Please know that we are always here to love and support you. Margie, Tine, Edward, Joe, Julia, (Claude, Harriett—in faith), and Denise
